Passage

The first murder ever committed in the United States occurred in September 1630, shortly after the Pilgrims arrived in Massachusetts. John Billington was the father of two sons, one of the first to settle in the new Plymouth Colony near what is today Boston, and one of the people who signed the Mayflower Compact. He was also the colony's first murderer. Billington was the first person to commit any crime in the colony, as far as we know today, and the first to be executed by the state in the New World. Billington's crime was to shoot a man named John Newcomen, for reasons which are lost to history. But Billington's problems had not begun on the soil of North America. He and his sons had nearly caused a mutiny aboard the Mayflower during the arduous trip across the ocean. One of his sons fired his gun aboard the Mayflower near an open keg of gunpowder. The flash from the gun could easily have ignited the powder and sunk the ship. In Plymouth Colony, Billington's behavior did not improve. He refused to serve any form of military duty under Miles Standish and was later implicated in a plot to overthrow the colony's leadership, but a lack of evidence prompted the leaders to let him go free. In the end, Billington's rebellious and angry nature caught up with him. He was found guilty of the murder of John Newcomen and died in disgrace on the gallows.

Based on the information in the passage, which of the following best describes John Billington?

- A. A man who was a criminal
- B. A man who was a murderer
- C. A man who was a Pilgrim
- D. None of these
